Often referred to as Japanese plum wine, made from Ume fruit. Can be enjoyed as a dessert wine or digestive.

JAPANESE WHISKY

The style of Japanese whisky comes from the way in which blended whisky is produced, and the differing nature of the industry in Japan.

Whisky companies own both the distilleries and the brands of blended whiskies, and do not trade with their competitors. Therefore, a blended whisky in Japan will generally only contain malt whisky from the distilleries owned by that same company.
